

10 years on, Wamiq's family awaits Justice

Will fight till death says father of slain boy

Auqib Javed

SRINAGAR: The family members of 7th class student Wamiq Farooq, who was killed in police action during the 2010 uprising are still waiting for Justice even after a decade has passed.

On Friday, a large number of people including relatives and family members of Wamiq paid glowing tributes to him on his 10th death anniversary that was held at Eigh Martyrs Graveyard here in Srinagar city.

Wamiq was killed on this day in 2010 when he was hit by a tear smoke shell at Rajouri Kadal, here in Old City.

However, unlike previous years, no separatist leader from any pro-freedom group visited the graveyard on this occasion due to their continuous incarceration.

Wamiq's father, Farooq Ahmad said that from past 10 years they are following every procedure of the Judiciary and are pinning hope on judicial system of the State. "I believe that judiciary will deliver justice in this case. I will continue to fight till death against the accused cops responsible for the murder of my son," Farooq said.

Pertinently, two cops, Assistant Sub-Inspector Abdul Khaliq and SPO Muhammad Akram, were found guilty of culpable homicide were sent to judicial custody.

Hurriyat team headed for Kumbh

Observer News Service

SRINAGAR: Two senior leaders of the All Party Hurriyat Conference will leave for the Kumbh in Uttar Pradesh on Friday for talks with Swami Adhyokshananda DevTirathjee, a rival claimant to the seat of Shankaracharya of Pun and various other prominent Hindu religious leaders.

The decision to send two executive members of the Hurriyat to Kumbh was taken after the top leadership of the conglomerate held detailed talks with Pandit N K Sharma, political advisor to former prime minister P V Narasimha Rao. Sharma will accompany the Hurriyat delegation, which is likely to include Mirwaiz Omer Farooq, religious head and Syed Ali Shah Gilani

In case Geelani is unable to go due to poor health, Abdul Ghani Lone will accompany the Mirwaiz, Sharma said. During their stay, the Hurriyat leaders will brief the religious leaders on the security and political situation in the state.

The Hurriyat leaders recently held talks with former law minister Ram Jethmalani, who is taking an active role in Kashmir affairs these days. The visit is primarily a goodwill one to explain to them that the Hurriyat wants a peaceful settlement of the Kashmir problem. Jethmalani also had several meetings with the Hurriyat leaders, which was also arranged by Pandit Sharma. Jethmalani met Home Minister Lai Krishna Advani and Swami Adhyokshananda before talking to the Hurriyat leaders.
