Administration Well Geared To Meet Any Exigency: Div Com

Urges to remain alert, press surveillance teams on 24X7 jobs

Observer News Service

SRINAGAR: The Divisional Commissioner Kashmir, Baseer Ahmad Khan today said that Divisional Administration is geared to meet any exigency in case of Corona Virus outbreak.

He made these remarks in a meeting convened to review the preparedness in this regard.

He directed Deputy Commissioners (DCs) and Officers of Health Institutions to generate mass awareness regarding the symptoms and preventive methods to tackle Corona Virus disease across valley, if detected. "Masjid Imams, Panchs, Sarpanchs, doctors, police and media should be roped in to disseminate health advisory to the public regarding the Corona Virus disease," Div Com directed.

He asked the concerned to maintain a travel inventory of students, businessmen and traders in each district, from December 01, 2019 who have been travelling to China and other reportedly infected countries.

Domestic and foreign tourists should also be enquired with regard to the Corona Virus disease symptoms, in a humble manner, he added.

He directed the DCs to setup 24x7 helpline and publicize the contact numbers through mass media.

The meeting was informed that no Corona Virus infected case was reported in the valley till date. However, the administration has activated Rapid Response teams and made arrangements to tackle the disease.

The meeting was informed that, Health Check-up Camps were established at Airport, main Railway Stations along with teams of doctors, paramedics with special ambulance service for preliminary screening of the travellers.

It was given out that GMChas set up 26 beds, SKIMS 25 in Srinagar district besides DSHK has kept 52 beds available across Kashmir Division with Isolation wards and ventilators in each hospital and PHCs.

Besides, VTM kits, personal protection gears and dedicated staff of Microbiologist have also been kept in ready mode. The GMC has stored 11,500 triple layer, 7000 N-95 masks while as SKIMS has stored 10,000 N-95. Moreover, 2 lac triple layer masks will reach valley within a day, the meeting was informed.

The Divisional Commissioner exhorted DCs and concerned officers to adopt multi-pronged strategy including deployment of screening teams with doctors at block level, besides roping in ASHA workers.

He asked the concerned to launch an intense awareness in rural belts and remote areas of Kashmir division. Besides, printing pamphlets regarding do's and don'ts of Corona Virus disease in Urdu, Kashmiri and English languages and distributed the same in these areas, at Airport, Railway Stations, different locations on National Highway and other congested places. He asked the concerned to ply announcement vehicles on highways on daily basis.

"Bio-medical and other wastes related to patients, if any, kept in isolation wards be lifted separately and disposed-off by incinerating as per the advisory of Health & Medical Education department besides, setting up adequate beds at PCR hospital and other district police hospitals with all facilities," he further added.

The Divisional Commissioner stressed DCs and concerned officers to remain alert regarding Corona Virus disease and press surveillance teams on 24X7 jobs.

Militants disarm cops, SPOs in Tangmarg

Observer News Service

SRINAGAR: In a dare-devil overnight strike, militants disarmed the policemen guarding the houses of migrant Kashmiri pandits in a Tangmarg village yesterday. They decamped with the arms and ammunition without causing any physical harm to their victims.

According to reports, a group of heavily armed militants swooped on a security picket established to guard a cluster of migrant houses at Tarhama near Kunzar in Tangmarg area of Baramulla district late last evening. After ordering the policemen out of the post, they relieved them of their arms and ammunition.

Reports said the intruders decamped with an SLR and its 20 rounds, three conventional .303 guns and their 150 ammunition rounds, uniforms and identity cards of the personnel. Five personnel present at the security post at the time were Firdous Ahmad (belt No 2092), officer incharge, constable Fayaz Ahmad (No 62/B), and three special police officers (SPOs), Muhammad Ayub (No 553), Ayaz Ali (No 603) and Muhammad Abdullah (No 507).

They are believed to have offered no resistance. The additional superintendent of police, Sopore, told Kashmir Observer the intruders spoke Punjabi and Urdu.
