The Congress, which fared poorly in the Jammu region but got six face-saving seats in the Kashmir valley, has two debutant MLAs while six of the seven Independent candidates who won the polls have become members of the elite House for the first time.

All three elected members of the People's Democratic Party (PDP) and the lone Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) MLA are first timers in the Assembly.

President's Rule Must Be Revoked Before Govt Formation

Agencies

Srinagar: The Union Government is required to revoke the President's rule in Jammu & Kashmir before the Omar Abdullah-led government takes oath, sources said.

Officials said that the President Droupadi Murmu would revoke the proclamation issued on October 31. 2019 to impose Central Rule in Jammu & Kashmir under section 73 of Jammu & Kashmir Reorganisation Act-2019. "The proclamation of the President's Rule needs to be revoked to pave the way for the elected government to take oath," they said, adding that the proclamation needs to be revoked because it had suspended all the provisions of the Reorganisation Act dealing with J&K Assembly and the elected government.

They added that revoking the President's rule from J&K also requires concurrence of the Union Cabinet.

On October 31, 2019 when Jammu & Kashmir was reorganized into two Union Territories, the Union Home Ministry issued a presidential order under Section 73 of the Jammu and Kashmir Reorganisation Act, 2019 imposing President's Rule in the Union territory of Jammu and Kashmir. "Since the Legislative Assembly in the new UT of Jammu and Kashmir is not in existence, in order to avoid any constitutional vacuum, based on the report of the Governor of erstwhile State of Jammu and Kashmir, a presidential order was issued on 31st October, 2019 under Section 73 of the Jammu Kashmir Reorganisation Act, 2019 imposing President's Rule in the Union territory of Jammu and Kashmir," the Union Government had said on November 20, 2019 when the cabinet approved the presidential order, ex post facto.

This comes days after Assembly Elections were conducted in Jammu and Kashmir after 10 years. NC-Congress is set to form the government in the Union Territory. State Election Commission has directed district development commissioners to provide the soft copy of final Panchayat electoral 2024.

In a letter, the State Election Commission has written to district development commissioners, "I am directed to request you to kindly provide the soft copies of final panchayat electoral Roll 2024 for uploading on the website of State Election Commission."

According to sources, the Panchayat elections are likely to be held before year end as the process has been initiated for holding these polls in Jammu and Kashmir. A total of 27,281 panches (panchayat members) and sarpanches (village headmen) were elected in the 2018 elections. There were 12,776 vacant sarpanch and panch seats in J&K. Bypolls to the Panchavats were held in 2020.

The Panchayat polls in J&K are not conducted by the Election Commission of India (ECI) but by the J&K state election commission.

Almost 30,000 panches and sarpanches completed fiveyear terms on January 9, 2024, and with that, the disbursal of Rs 25 lakh panchayat fund also ceased. The 2024 Panchayat poll will be held after fresh delimitation of 'Halqas' (Revenue Villages). (KINS)

tions, such as stigma, discrimination and exposure to risks like harassment, can affect mental health, leading to decreased performance, absenteeism and increased staff turnover, said Saima Wazed, WHO's Regional Director for Southeast Asia.

"Depression and anxiety alone result in the loss of approximately 12 billion workdays each year, costing the global economy around USD 1 trillion annually," Wazed said.

The theme of World Mental Health Day emphasises the importance of "mental health at workplace", as a healthy working environment can act as a protective factor for mental wellbeing, said

Pointing out that work is a significant source of stress, anxiety and pressure for many people, she said, "Yet, because it is a place where we spend most of our time, positive changes at the workplace can bring about a significant change in our lives.'

She also said as endorsed and mandated by the World Health Organization's (WHO) member states, mental and psychosocial wellbeing has been marked as one of the cornerstones of the "regional roadmap for results and resilience".

"In keeping with the roadmap, we recently announced SEARO Care -- our groundbreaking initiative to improve the mental health and wellness of those working at our regional and country offices.

Once formally launched, we hope SEARO Care to become a case study and model for other companies and organisations in our region," Wazed said. SEARO Care's two main pillars are improving the working environment at all the WHO offices and protecting the mental health of all the employees.

"Împroving the working environment encompasses both physical and psychological environments in which our colleagues work," Wazed said.

"This includes providing areas to socialise, ergonomic office equipment, exercise facilities and more. Promoting mental health will include training managers on the isholding mindfulness surveys workshops, more," she added.

Murky Water Supply Plagues Rainawari Residents

Observer News Service

Sringgar: Residents of Mughal Mohalla and Kuchay Maidan in Rainawari area in the old city are grappling with a severe water shortage, forced to fetch drinking water from neighboring areas due to the supply of extremely muddy tap water. The crisis, persisting for several weeks, has left locals frustrated and alarmed.

Residents said that the murky tap water, thick with mud, renders it undrinkable and unusable for cooking, cleaning, or personal hygiene. "We are compelled to walk long distances or rely on friends and relatives in other parts of Srinagar to access clean water," they said.

Lal Bazar Residents Protest Diversion Of Land For Residential Plots

Observer News Service

Srinagar: Residents of Hubi Colony, Sikh Bagh, Lal Bazar, Srinagar, are up in arms against the administrative move to divert a large chunk of vacant land, originally meant for a Fire and Emergency Services station, to residential plots. According to the locals, this decision could prove catastrophic for the area, which lacks emergency services during crises.

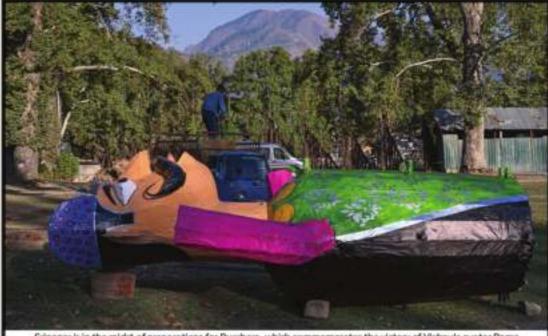

Locals told the news agency-KNO that a written directive had been issued by the Divisional Commissioner. Kashmir, to the Assistant Director of the Fire and Emergency Services Department, instructing them to demarcate the land for the establishment of a fire station.

"A large population resides in this area, yet there is neither a local dispensary nor a fire station. We urged the government to address this.

The Divisional Commissioner issued orders, and the open land in the middle of this colony was demarcated for this purpose. However, today, we saw men from the PW (R&B) Department visiting the site and re-demarcating it," said Sofi Abdul Majeed Pampori, President of the Hubi Welfare Committee, Lal Bazar.

He said they were informed that the land would now be allocated for residential plots, violating the orders issued by the Divisional Commissioner, Lal Bazar, he said. is a large area, and they don't have a fire station there and that they will not allow their demand to be undermined or disregarded.

He added that the government must consider why it would deny a fire station to the area when residential plots could easily be allocated in other parts of Srinagar, such as Bemina or its peripheries.

Will J&K Finally Get Its National Law University?

Renewed Hopes with New Government

Ummar Jamal

for an NLU in Jammu and Kashmir has never been more pressing. The inadequacies of the existing legal education system were glaringly evident in 2022 when none of the 217 candidates from the region could qualify for the district judges' examination or the first time since 2018, Jammu and Kashmir is set to have a popular government, with the National Conference (NC) and Congress alliance set to assume power. The completion of longawaited elections has invigorated the people of Jammu and Kashmir, who are now optimistic that their pressing issues, exacerbated by the absence of a popular government, will finally receive the attention they deserve. Among these critical issues, the establishment of a National Law University (NLU) stands out, representing an unfulfilled promise that has lingered for years, despite its formal adoption by the Union Ministry of Home Affairs.

The Importance of a National Law University

Unlike 21 other states in India, Jammu and Kashmir continues to lack a National Law University, which significantly hampers the prospects of its law students. NLUs provide advanced legal education, exceptional infrastructure, and essential opportunities that are crucial for students' career growth. The absence of such an institution in Jammu and Kashmir has deprived law students of a competitive edge, placing them at a disadvantage compared to their counterparts in other states. With the formation of a new government, there is renewed hope that this long-standing demand for an NLU will finally be realized, thus improving the quality of legal education in the region.

Back in 2018, a wave of optimism swept through Jammu and Kashmir among law students when the then PDP BJP coalition government passed the J&K National Law University Bill in the legislative assembly. This was a significant milestone, as it symbolized a commitment to enhancing legal education in the region. However, despite the bill's passage, it required the governor's approval to move forward. During Governor N. N. Vohra's tenure, certain clarifications were sought regarding the bill, leading to stagnation in the process. On October 1, 2019, Governor Satya Pal Malik finally gave his assent to the bill, officially paving the way for the establishment of the NLU in Jammu and Kashmir. However, the bifurcation of the state into two Union Territories complicated matters. The J&K National Law University Act was amended and formally adopted by the Union Ministry of Home Affairs, yet over five years have passed since this adoption. The delay in implementation has left the creation of the NLU as an unrealized promise, leaving law students in the region frustrated and disappointed.

The Disparity in Legal Education

As of now, Jammu and Kashmir is home to three government universities and seven private law colleges offering law programs like LLB and BA.LL.B. These institutions include the University of Kashmir, University of Jammu, Central University of Kashmir, and several private colleges such as Kashmir Law College, Vitasta School of Law and Humanities, KCEF Law College, and Sopore Law College in the Kashmir division. In the Jammu division, there are KC Law College, Dogra Law College, and Ashoka Law College. However, none of these institutions can compare to the Na tional Law Universities in terms of infrastructure, curriculum, and overall educational quality.

The teaching methods employed in these colleges often reflect outdated practices, emphasizing theoretical knowledge while neglecting practical skills essential for modern legal education. Key components such as mooting, debating, and internships are often underrepresented in the curriculum, leading to a significant gap between what law students learn and what is required in the professional world.

The necessity for an NLU in Jammu and Kashmir has never been more pressing. The inadequacies of the existing legal education system were glaringly evident in 2022 when none of the 217 candidates from the region could qualify for the district judges' examination. This abysmal performance underscores the urgent need for an overhaul in the legal education system, which should include the establishment of a National Law University.

A National Law University in Jammu and Kashmir would not only enhance the standard of legal education but also cater to the growing needs of the legal profession in the region. Graduates from NLUs are often preferred by leading law firms and corporations for placements, as these institutions provide superior training, robust infrastructure, and a well-rounded educational experience. NLUs also have student bodies elected by the students themselves, allowing for more effective representation of student needs and concerns to the administration.

A Broader Vision for Legal Education

The idea of establishing a National Law University in Jammu and Kashmir is not a new one. It dates back to the "All India Law Ministers Conference" in 1995, where it was unanimously decided that each state should have a law school modeled after the National Law School University to elevate the standard of legal education nationwide. Unfortunately, this vision remains unfulfilled in Jammu and Kashmir, leaving the region at a significant disadvantage compared to other states that have successfully established their own NLUs.

Currently, India boasts a total of 23 National Law Universities, with states like Maharashtra housing two NLUs in Mumbai and Nagpur. Uttar Pradesh is also set to establish its second NLU. Yet, Jammu and Kashmir remains several states-including Arunachal Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Sikkim, Tripura, Mizoram, Meghalaya, and Manipur-without a National Law University. This disparity underscores the urgent need for the J&K government to prioritize the establishment of an NLU to bring the region in line with national standards.

A Call to Action for the New Government

As the NC-Congress government takes the reins, there is a palpable sense of hope that they will prioritize the establishment of Jammu and Kashmir's own National Law University. This endeavour should be at the forefront of their educational reform agenda, ensuring that the region's law students receive the high-quality legal education they deserve.

By expediting the process of setting up an NLU, the government can fulfil a long-standing demand for improved legal education, helping to prepare a new generation of legal professionals capable of meeting the challenges of a rapidly evolving legal landscape

The establishment of a National Law University in Jammu and Kashmir would be a significant step toward advancing the region's educational framework, enhancing opportunities for law students, and ultimately contributing to the betterment of society as a whole. With a renewed government in place, the people of Jammu and Kashmir remain hopeful that their aspirations for a National Law University will soon become a reality, allowing them to finally compete on an equal footing with other states odi's trip to Moscow in July annoyed the US because it coincided with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) summit in Washington and his warm friendship with Putin displeased Western countries. The joint India-Russia communiqué made a concession to Russia by referring to the war "around Ukraine" rather than in Ukraine. Although India continues to import huge quantities of Russian oil, India did not gain any tangible returns in the form of the rupee-rouble trade or major investments.

India's stock seemed high during Modi's historic visit to Ukraine in August because New Delhi claimed that India was facilitating communication between Russia, Ukraine, and the US. But Moscow's statement that it had received no peace messages or peace plan from New Delhi took the shine off India's claim.

India must also contend with the facts that its rival China has had more communication with Russia and Ukraine about their war, and has greater influence over Moscow than India not just because it is buying Russian energy but also selling Russia technology which can be used for civilian and military purposes. So it is helping to keep Russia's defence industry afloat. For, the outstanding fact is that China is united with Russia in challenging the US' global primacy.

India's influence as communicator on the possibilities of peace in Ukraine will be limited because the West is Ukraine's top military partner. And, despite the incremental aid America has sent Ukraine, Washington will prevent an unconditional Russian victory because that would mean that NATO had failed to contain Russian aggression.

On the other side, Russia has no intention of giving up the Ukrainian territories it has occupied, while Ukraine will not accept any peace plan which offers it anything less. Moreover, Putin's praise for China, India, and Brazil as "trusted partners" will not enhance their image in the West or Ukraine as impartial peacemakers. India will need stronger communication skills to cross that hurdle. Like China and Brazil, it should offer some concrete peace proposals which arouse international interest. Only then will its frequent assertion that it is on the side of peace carry weight.

Modi's participation in the sixth Quad Leaders' Summit in Wilmington, Delaware, on September 21 raised hopes of consolidating security cooperation among the four leading maritime democracies in the Indo-Pacific. The other Quad countries are Australia, Japan, and the US. Modi's attendance showed how much India needs the rules-based order upheld by the US in the Indo-Pacific in order to counter China's revisionist challenge to the existing global order. India also wants changes to the international order, but has yet to present any ideas which could counter China's brand of revisionism, which threatens the territorial integrity of most of its neighbors.

The Quad also brings India into conflict with Russia and China, both of whom perceive the concept of the Indo-Pacific weighted against them. At the same time India, as the only non-ally in the Quad, cannot be the US' top security priority.

India's ties with the US have strengthened over the last decade, but Washington will not transfer sensitive military technology to a non-ally. Since launching its invasion of Ukraine in 2022, Russia has cut off arms deliveries to India and other customers. New Delhi's friends, France, Israel, and the US, have not been able to replace Russia's old place in India's military imports and platforms.

As for China, Modi's National Security Adviser, Ajit Doval, met Chinese foreign minister Wang Yi in mid-September in yet another attempt to resolve India's four-year-old military standoff with China at the Line of Actual Control. So far, no result in India's favour has emerged.

Meanwhile, China is Russia's strongest economic military partner and is therefore Moscow's highest priority. That leaves India in a position of secondary importance to both Russia and the US.

Putin's recent announcement that Russia would launch a nuclear attack on any NATO country that joins forces with Ukraine could turn out to be an embarrasament for India, which hopes to be on good terms with Russia, the US, and Ukraine while strengthening itself against China.

At another level, Russia's embrace of China implies that it supports Beijing's intention to be the leader of the developing world. This cuts across India's similar ambition.

The expansion of BRICS and the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation by the end of October under the China-

Russia leadership will enhance their diplomatic clout. The Ukraine war has complicated India's management of its relationships with Russia, China, and the US without pleasing any of them.

The longer-term American wish to see Russia defeated in Ukraine does not necessarily offer India any prospect that New Delhi would find easy to accept. But India must continue to reinforce its strategic partnerships with the US and other Quad countries. The Quad gives India a wider Asian presence. However, India's weak economic ties with most Asian countries, especially in comparison to China's, reduce its economic and strategic presence in the Indian and Pacific Oceans.

It would be wise for India to stop hanging on to the coat-tails of an old relationship with Russia and to cultivate stronger economic ties with Quad partners and, more generally, with the Asian countries that could offer it much more economically than Russia. Ultimately, the strength of the links between India's economic progress and its security will decide the chances of its achieving great power.

'Lack Of Support, Workplace Harassment Increases Stress Levels'

Agencies

Srinagar: A lack of support and harassment in the workplace can increase stress levels, for which there is a need for proactive stress management strategies.

In an interview Zoya Shafat Mir, a clinical psychologist and founder of Psychlite, a psychology clinic, said it is important to maintain connections with trusted friends and family to navigate stressful work situations. Here are the excerpts:

What is the overall prevalence of mental health conditions among working adults?

According to the WHO, 15% of working adults suffer from mental health disorders, and one in four employees experiences health issues.

What is the connection between mental health and work?

Work plays a crucial role in our lives. Beyond financial benefits, jobs provide meaning, structure, and purpose. They can enhance our sense of identity and self-esteem while offering essential social outlets. However, a negative work environment can lead to detrimental effects on emotional health. Factors such as long hours, understaffing, lack of support and workplace harassment can elevate stress levels and contribute to mental health problems, including anxiety, depression and substance abuse

Moreover, mental health issues can impact job performance and productivity. Recent estimates suggest that mental health challenges cost the global economy $1 trillion annually due to lost productivity, absenteeism, and staff turnover. Unfortunately, many aspects of our work environment are beyond our control, with workplace culture often set by those in senior positions, leaving employees hesitant to speak out for fear of judgment or job security.

What are the signs of burnout?

The initial sign of burnout is often a decline in work performance. This may be followed by difficulties concentrating, changes in appetite and sleep patterns, mood swings, irritability, and feelings of hopelessness. Individuals may lose interest in activities they once enjoyed, withdraw from social interactions, and become overly sensitive to minor issues Physical symptoms can include unexplained headaches or body pain, a frequent desire for breaks, and ruminations about the purpose of their job or life.

How can one manage stress at work?

Managing stress doesn't require a complete lifestyle overhaul; small changes can have a significant impact. Start by identifying your stressors and tackling them one at a time. Re-evaluating negative beliefs is also crucial prolonged worry can lead to a negative outlook on situations. Instead of making automatic judgments, try to distance yourself from negative thoughts and observe them objectively.

Maintain connections with trusted friends and family to help cope with stress. Prioritise selfcare by ensuring adequate sleep, scheduling time for enjoyment. and eating throughout the day. It's also important to let go of perfectionism, which, while beneficial in moderation, can lead to stress and burnout when it becomes a continuous pattern.

When taking breaks, treat them as genuine time off-avoid adding to your to-do list and instead focus on activities that recharge you, away from screens and work-related tasks. Lastly, if burnout is causing anxiety, depression, or relationship issues, don't hesitate to seek help from a mental health professional. Timely intervention can prevent further complications—(KNO)

Rajya Sabha or the Legislative Council in the erstwhile state of Jammu and Kashmir. Among them is former high court judge and NC leader Hasnain Masoodi, who was a member of the Lok Sabha from 2019 to 2024.

Masoodi was elected to the Assembly from PDP leader Mir Mohammad Fayaz, who won the electoral contest from Kupwara, was a member of the Rajya Sabha from 2015 to 2021. The 47-year-old had lost the 2014 Assembly polls by a slender margin of 151 votes.

NC leaders Bashir Ahmad Veeri (Srigufwara-Bijbehara), Saifuddin Bhat (Khansahib), Javaid Ahmad Mirchal (Karnah), Surinder Kumar Choudhary (Nowshera) and Showkat Hussain Ganie (Zainapora) have in the past been members of the Legislative Council.

From the BJP, Vikram Randhawa, who won the Bahu seat in Jammu, was a member of the Upper House of the legislature in the past.

The Upper House of the Jammu and Kashmir legislature was abolished following the reorganisation of the erstwhile state into two Union territories.

Parihar Youngest, Rather Oldest

BJP's 29-year-old Shagun Parihar is the youngest member of the newly elected Jammu and Kashmir Legislative Assembly, while National Conference veteran Abdul Rahim Rather aged 80 is the oldest member.

Parihar, who lost her father and uncle in a terror attack in 2018, is the only member of assembly below the age of 30 while Rather, the seven-time MLA from Chara-e-Sharief, is the only octogenarian in the house, data compiled by Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR)

According to the ADR data, the average age of an MLA in Jammu and Kashmir is 55.71 vears, which is reflected in the number of legislators with 32 falling in the age group of 51

Among the 10 youngest newly-elected MLAs are PDP's Waheed Para (Pulwama), Aam Admi Party's Mehraj Malik (Doda), NC's Mehar Ali (Kangan), independent Rameshwar Singh (Bani) and BIP's Sunil Bharadwaj (Ramnagar).

Congress MLA from Bandipora Nizamuddin Bhat at 77 is the second oldest member followed by CPI(M)'s Kulgam MLA Mohammad Yousuf Tarigami who is 75 years old.

National Conference's (NC) Eidgah MLA Mubarak Gul aged 73, while Beerwah MLA Mohammad Shafi Wani (NC), Pattan MLA Javaid Riyaz (NC) and Anantnag MLA P M Sayeed (Congress) are all 71.

The other elected septuagenarians include NC's Hasnain Masoodi (Pampore), BJP's Surjit Slathia (Samba) and his party colleague Baldev Raj (Shri Mata Vaishno Devi).

According to ADR, 23 MLAs are between the ages of 41 and 50 years, while 22 members are in the age group of 61 to 70 years. There are six MLAs who are aged below 40, including Parihar, the first time legislator from Kishtwar seat in Jammu region.

The polls right body also found that there has been no change in the composition of the assembly in terms of gender ratio.

There were three women MLAs in the last assembly which was dissolved in the 2018 elections and the number has remained unchanged

In 2014, NC's Shamima Firdous and PDP's Asiea Naqash were the only two women to get elected but PDP president Mehbooba Mufti joined them in the House after getting elected in the 2016 bypoll held after the death of her father and then chief minister Mufti Mohammad

Sayeed. Firdous has retained Shamima

Habbakadal seat while Sakina Masood managed to regain the D H Pora seat which she had lost in 2014 elections.

In the poll results declared by the Election Commission on Tuesday, the alliance of the NC and Congress, who are constituents of the opposition grouping INDIA bloc, won 48 of the 90 seats at stake. The BJP with 29 seats emerged as the second largest party improving its all-time high tally of 25 in 2014 elections.

42 out of the 90 seats which went to poll in the recent elections, while the Congress won six. Together, the two pre-poll allies hold a majority in the 95-member assembly -- five members are to be nominated by the LG. They strength is further bolstered by support from four independent MLA-elect and a lone Aam Aadmi Party (AAP)

"I met the LG and presented the letters of support from the NC, Congress, CPI(M), AAP, and independents backing the NC. I requested him to schedule the oath ceremony at the earliest so that the government elected by the people can start functioning," Abdullah told reporters at his residence following his meeting with the lieutenant governor.

A Raj Bhavan spokesperson said Abdullah handed over the letters of support of the parties to the LG.

"Shri Omar Abdullah, Vice President, Jammu & Kashmir National Conference (JKNC) called on Lieutenant Governor Shri Manoj Sinha at Raj Bhawan today. He handed over a letter from the Party President Dr. Farooq Abdullah stating that Shri Omar Abdullah has been elected as Leader of the Legislature Party of JKNC. Letters of support from INC, CPI(M), AAP and independent members were also handed over to the Lieutenant Governor," the spokesperson said.

Omar Abdullah indicated that the swearing-in ceremony is likely to take place on Wednesday, saying the transition process may take some time as the Union Territory is at present under the central rule.

"This is not a situation where one elected government is replacing another. We are currently under central rule as a union territory, and the LG must prepare and send documents to the Rashtrapati Bhavan. These documents will then go to the Home Ministry for processing before returning.

"We have been informed that this could take at least 2-3 days, but I hope the oath ceremony can be held on Wednesday if this process is expedited," Omar added.

He said that some of the independents who have been elected have joined the National Conference and "now it is my duty to stand with them and ensure all round development

Earlier in the day, Congress legislators convened and authorised the party's high command in New Delhi to select the leader of its legislature party.

After the meeting, JKPCC president Tariq Karra said the party unanimously authorised the central leadership to make the final decision regarding the CLP leader.

This would be the first government of Jammu and Kashmir after the state was divided into two union territories on August 5, 2019. The special status of the erstwhile state was also revoked on the date by withdrawing Article 370.

J&K in Rajya Sabha. He being a Gujjar face, was nominated by the BJP. The BJP's move was aimed to woo Gujjar votes in the recently concluded Assembly polls," sources said. Under the Jammu and Reorganisation Act, 2019, the 90-member J&K Assembly can elect five Lok Sabha members and four Rajya Sabha members.

The last Rajya Sabha elections in J&K were held in 2015. NC-Congress alliance had secured one seat while the then Congress leader Ghulam Nabi Azad became the Leader of the Opposition in Rajya Sabha. All four Rajya Sabha members from J&K retired in February 2021.

The NC Chief was elected to Lok Sabha in 2014 from Srinagar Parliamentary polls. NC's Hasnain Masoodi and Muhammad Akbar Lone won from Anantnag and Baramulla Lok Sabha seats. Sources said that NC in its recent Legislature Party meeting also unanimously agreed that Dr Farooq should represent the party in Rajya Sabha.(KNO) resolution on the issue and that has been forwarded to the central leadership for taking the call," Jammu and Kashmir Pradesh Congress Committee (JKPCC) president Tariq Hameed Karra told reporters after the CLP meeting here.

The meeting of the six newly elected MLAs -including Karra, All India Congress Committee (AICC) general secretary Ghulam Ahmad Mir, Nizamuddin Bhat, Peerzada Mohammad Sayeed, Irfan Hafeez Lone and Iftikar Ahmad - was held in the party headquarters at M A

Karra said the Congress has extended the support to the NC for government formation and the letter of support will be given to the NC leadership on Friday only.

Asked why the decision was left to the party high command, Karra said there were no differences on the choice of the CLP leader, but "there is a precedent in the INC (Indian National Congress) to do that... this is nothing abnormal for the INC".

To a question whether the party has any demands for supporting the NC, the JKPCC chief said they have not made any demands and the party wants to keep the spirit of the INDIA bloc intact "for a bigger cause of the betterment of

Asked about the NC enjoying a majority on its own with the support of Independents, Karra said the spirit of the alliance is much higher than the numbers game. The spirit is different. It is pan-India spirit. It is not confined to J&K.

"It has utility for the entire India. This is not an issue of ministerial berths. It is for our fight against the BJP," he said.

To a query whether the party accepts NC leader Omar Abdullah, who has been elected as the legislature party leader of his party, as the chief ministerial face of the alliance, Karra said. "When the NC has elected its leader, why should we comment? He is acceptable to us. It is their choice."

Asserting that terrorism also poses a serious challenge to global peace and security, Modi said that to combat it, forces that believe in humanity must come together and work in

He also called for strengthening mutual co-operation in the areas of cyber, maritime, and India has consistently supported the unity and centrality of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN), which, Modi said, is pivotal to India's Indo-Pacific vision and Quad cooperation.

There are important similarities between India's "Indo-Pacific Oceans Initiative" and the "ASEAN Outlook on Indo-Pacific", the prime minister pointed out. India endorses ASEAN's approach to the situation in Myanmar and support the Five-Point Consensus, he said, adding, "Myanmar should be engaged rather than isolated in this At the start of his address, Modi expressed deep condolences to those affected by

'Typhoon Yagi,' a destructive tropical cyclone which impacted Southeast Asia and South China last month. Recalling how the revival of Nalanda was a commitment made at one of the earlier East Asia Summit, the prime minister said, "This June, we fulfilled that commitment by inaugurating the new campus of Nalanda University." And then went on to invite the East Asian Summit countries to attend the 'Heads of Higher Education Conclave' to be held at Nalanda" later The East Asia Summit comprises 18 participating countries. It includes 10 ASEAN member states -- Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam -- and Australia, China, India, Japan, New Zealand, the Republic of Korea, the Russian Federation, and the United States of America.

Later at a briefing here, Secretary (East) in the Ministry of External Affairs, Jaideep Mazumdar said the leaders exchanged views on regional and international matters that affect peace, stability and prosperity in the Indo-Pacific region and beyond.

Modi participated in the 21st ASEAN-India Summit on Thursday.

"Since his arrival, Modi has had intense engagements, including both the ASEAN-India Summit, the East Asia Summit and various bilateral talks," Mazumdar said.

The MEA official said ASEAN leaders "very positively appraised our cooperation" in many areas of diverse collaboration, as a result of India's Act East Policy along with India's leadership role in digital public infrastructure and the fact that ASEAN countries can benefit significantly from this.

On Thursday, Modi attended a special presentation of an episode of Lao Ramayan called Phalak Phalam or Phra Lak Phra Ram performed by the prestigious Royal Theatre of Luang Prabang. He also walked through a photo exhibi-

LEGENDS LEAGUE CRICKET

Chris Gayle Fever Grips Kashmir, Thousands Flock Bakshi Stadium To Witness 'Universe Boss'

SRINAGAR: Chris Gayle fever has gripped the valley as nearly three thousand fans thronged Srinagar's Bakshi Stadium on Friday to witness the "Universe Boss" in action during the Legends Cricket League. The atmosphere was electrifying as the legendary West Indian cricketer set foot in Kashmir for the first time, and cheers erupted from the crowd.

Per reports, excitement swept across the valley as cricket lovers gathered at the packed stadium.

Bakshi Stadium, which can accommodate nearly 30,000 people, saw fans lining up outside the gates, eager to enter.

"The Legends League Cricket in Srinagar has been a resounding success, with locals turning out in droves to see their favourite legends play on home soil," one of the organisers said.

As the match commenced and Chris Gayle, also known as the "Universe Boss", took to the field, fans began chanting, "Gayaloo, Gayloo" and "Sixer, Sixer".

Burhan, a local, expressed his oy. "This is a dream come true. I have always watched these legends on television, and seeing them in person is truly special."

During the game, a moment of excitement arose when a catch by Chris was dropped. This further fuelled the crowd's enthusiasm as they cheered in support of their favourite player.

The event marked a blockbuster occasion in Srinagar, with every seat in the stadium filled.

"If Chris Gayle can make it, so can we," said 17-year-old Jibran, a budding cricketer from Pulwama. "He has come for his fans, and I was thrilled to watch him play on the ground today."

The match featured Konark Suryas versus Gujarat Greats, with Gujarat led by Shikhar Dhawan and the opposing team captained by legendary cricketer Irfan Pathan.

The stadium gates were eventually closed as the crowd continued to swell. This showed the immense excitement and passion for cricket in the heart of Srinagar.

Observer News Service

ANANTNAG: The Department of Youth Services and Sports Anantnag organised a Fit Îndia Swachhta Freedom Run on Friday at Nussu in Zone Qazigund. The event aimed to promote fitness, cleanliness and awareness about a healthier and cleaner environment among the youth.

The program was inaugurated with a ceremonial at the HS Nussu. The participants, consisting of students from various schools, ran from the starting point to the finish line at Ladgan Bridge, covering a significant distance as a symbol of their commitment to physical fitness and a cleaner society.

A total of 155 students, including both boys and girls, actively participated in the run.

The event was conducted smoothly and witnessed active collaboration between school authorities, the YSS staff and local volunteers, ensuring its suc-

3rd T20: India Eye Series Sweep, Runs From Openers

Press Trust of India

HYDERABAD: Despite its inconsequential nature, India will be eagerly pursuing the twin goals of a series sweep and monitoring the progress of impressive second-line players during the third and final T20 against Bangladesh here on Saturday.

India have already bagged the series 2-0 after wins at Gwalior and New Delhi.

This Indian bunch under Gautam Gambhir has shown an insatiable hunger for victory, and doubters can glance back at its result-oriented approach during the rain-marred Kanpur Test against the same opposition a few days ago. Hence, they are unlikely to show any laxity here too as a 3-0 sweep will sit nicely along with the 2-0 margin in the preceding Test series.

Beyond the obvious, India will also look to add new pieces to their white ball jigsaw puzzle ahead of some important assignments such as the Champions Trophy.

So, in a season teeming with showpiece events globally as well as bilaterally, it's critical for the team to have multiple backup options.

In that context, it's clear that Gambhir and his colleagues in the

Opening Woes

Among these slivers of positives, the outings of Sanju Samson and Abhishek Sharma stick out like a sore thumb.

Samson has given a chance to open the innings in this series and it's a godsend in T20s, giving the batter a chance to exploit the six power play overs.

modest outings to show so far a 19-ball 29, a missed chance to make a fifty in a small chase of 128, and a 7-ball 10.

Samson will have to come up with something special here not to slip away from the eyesight of management, unless they want to give a go to Jitesh Sharma, the second wicketkeeper batter in the squad.

Similarly, the backroom staff would want a substantial outing from Abhishek who too has produced lukewarm 15 and 16 in the last two matches.

The failure of openers has put a bit of strain on the middle-order, as the hosts were 41 for three inside the power play segment before the middle-order bailed them out in the second T20I.

Apart from that, the team think-tank will decide whether to hand a match to some other worthy names on the bench like leg-spinner Ravi Bishnoi and allrounder Harshit Rana.

As for Bangladesh, the visitors will strive to taste that elusive victory on this tour.

For that, they will need a consistent effort, particularly from seniors like captain Najmul Hossain Shanto, Litton Das and Mustafizur Rahman who all have been disappointing till now. Match starts at 7 PM IST.
